SUPERVISOR BIDDLE TO EMPOWER LOCAL TEENS

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Eyon Biddle Sr. will speak to a group of over 40 teenagers on Wednesday about his personal story and the importance of community involvement.

“It’s critical for these young people to understand that a strong community is the key to a strong city, county, state, nation and world,” said Supervisor Biddle. “It’s even more important for them to understand that it starts with them.”

“Young people need to understand that they are responsible for decisions they make and, ultimately, how their lives turn out. It starts with them, but as a community we must help guide them,” Supervisor Biddle added. “They have to reach for their own destiny. We must inspire all of our young people to be the best they can be.”
